ASPEN IDEAS FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

'SELECTED SHORTS: LOVERS AND STRANGERS'

JUNE 24 8:30 PM, HOTEL JEROME BALLROOM

The hit public radio series "Selected Shorts" comes to the Aspen Ideas Festival with an evening of spellbinding short stories about chance encounters, love, loss, and new beginnings. Host Melora Hardin ("The Bold Type") joins actors René Auberjonois ("Star Trek: Deep Space Nine"), Gilchrist Jackson ("Whodunnit?"), and Jenna Ushkowitz ("Glee") as they perform moving and comical stories by established and emerging writers.

SOCIAL MEDIA IS GOOD FOR DEMOCRACY (LIVE TAPING)

JUNE 26 5:30 PM, ST. REGIS HOTEL BALLROOM

Platforms like Twitter and Facebook set the stage for a promising digital revolution, providing tools that helped foster global friendships, let new voices be heard, and served as the ultimate democratizing force for information. But critics argue that rather than uniting and informing, social media deepens social and political divisions and erodes trust in the democratic process, violates citizens' privacy, and spreads propaganda. Will the power of social media yet be harnessed and used as an unprecedented force for good in the world? Or do systemic platform flaws pose an irreversible threat to the world's democratic institutions?

GLOBALIZATION HAS UNDERMINED THE AMERICAN WORKING CLASS (LIVE TAPING)

JUNE 28 5:30 PM, ST. REGIS HOTEL BALLROOM

Globalization ushered in an era of free trade, fluid borders, and unparalleled corporate profits. For its proponents, the global integration of states and their economies was a political and economic win that created a wealth of opportunities for workers and consumers around the world. But in the United States, jobs are disappearing in construction zones, clerical offices, and coal mines. Did the push toward global integration turn our most vulnerable populations into the losers of this grand experiment, or is globalization being used as a scapegoat for failed public policies and unprecedented advances in technology?

AFTERNOON OF CONVERSATION

JUNE 27, 3-5 PM BENEDICT MUSIC TENT

For our annual signature event in the Benedict Music Tent, the 2018 Aspen Ideas Festival hosts former secretary of state John Kerry in a candid conversation about geopolitics with Andrea Mitchell. Immediately following, in collaboration with Theatre Aspen, the Festival presents a live performance and panel discussions examining the historical and social impact that iconic works of theater and the musical stage have had in accentuating critical social issues. Discussions are moderated by Washington Post columnist Peter Marks and include Katie Couric, David Brooks, Maria Hinojosa, Jonathan Capehart, Jelani Cobb, Jose Antonio Vargas, Alisa Solomon, and Nadine Strossen.

SPOTLIGHT HEALTH & ASPEN IDEAS FESTIVAL FILMS

ALL FILMS SCREENED AT PAEPCKE AUDITORIUM

SCIENCE FAIR JUNE 21, 7:30 PM From National Geographic Documentary Films, Science Fair follows nine high school students from around the globe as they navigate rivalries, setbacks, triumphs — and, inevitably, hormones — on their journey to compete at the 2017 International Science and Engineering Fair. Facing off against 1,700 of the smartest, quirkiest teens from 78 different countries, only one will earn the Gordon E. Moore Award as Best of the Best. A post-screening discussion with 2012 award winner Jack Andraka will illuminate the excitement of the competition. (This film screening and panel discussion is made possible in part by support from the Gordon and Betty Moore Foundation.)

FAR FROM THE TREE JUNE 22, 7:30 PM

Discover the courage of compassion through the eyes of parents journeying toward acceptance of their unique children. Based on Andrew Solomon's best-selling book, Far from the Tree: Parents, Children and the Search for Identity, the film offers a deeply personal view of what it means to parent a child with autism, Down syndrome, or short stature, or to have raised a teenager who murders a little boy. Directed by Rachel Dretzin, this sneak peek screening will be followed by a discussion with Solomon and some of the parents featured in the film.

THE TALE JUNE 23, 7:30 PM

The Tale probes one woman's memory as she is forced to reexamine her own experience of sexual abuse and exposes the stories survivors tell themselves in order to move forward. The film stars Laura Dern, Ellen Burstyn, and the rapper Common. Jennifer Fox, a Sundance Grand Prize winner and Emmy-nominated director, wrote and directed The Tale, which is based on her own story. She will participate in the post-screening discussion, along with an expert on the trauma of sexual abuse. Disclaimer: This film contains material of a sensitive nature, including strong adult content. Viewer discretion advised.

ANOTE'S ARK JUNE 24, 7:30 PM

What if your country was swallowed by the sea? The Pacific island nation of Kiribati (population 100,000) is one of the most remote places on the planet, and one of the first to confront imminent annihilation from sea-level rise. Set against the backdrop of international climate and human rights negotiations, former Kiribati president Anote Tong's struggle to save his nation is intertwined with the extraordinary fate of a young mother of six, who fights to migrate her family to New Zealand. At stake is the survival of the Kiribati people and 4,000 years of Kiribati culture. Film is followed by a discussion with filmmaker Matthieu Rytz.

306 HOLLYWOOD JUNE 25, 7:30 PM

With boundless creativity and irrepressible energy, 306 Hollywood memorializes and honors the life of the filmmakers' grandmother, Annette Ontell. Housewife, fashion designer, and beloved family member, Ontell lived seven decades in the same house — 306 Hollywood Avenue in Hillside, New Jersey. Ultimately a profound reflection on how we examine and deal with the past, the film can also be viewed as a quirky instruction manual on how to live in the present. 306 Hollywood remains intellectually adventurous while playfully peeking into odd corners and exploring shifts in scale. Film is followed by discussion with filmmakers Elan and John Bogarin.

THE MISEDUCATION OF CAMERON POST JUNE 26, 7:30 PM

Based on the novel by Emily Danforth, The Miseducation of Cameron Post follows Cameron (Chloë Grace Moretz) as she is sent to a gay conversion therapy center after getting caught with another girl in the back seat of a car on prom night. The center is run by Dr. Lydia Marsh (Jennifer Ehle) and her brother, Reverend Rick (John Gallagher Jr.) — himself an example of how those in the program can be "cured." In the face of intolerance, Cameron meets fellow sinners Jane (Sasha Lane), and Adam (Forrest Goodluck). Together, the teenagers form an unlikely family and fight to survive.

THE SENTENCE JUNE 27, 7:30 PM

Ever wondered why mandatory minimum sentences are so controversial? Pay a visit through film to the family of Cindy Shank, mother of three, who is serving a 15-year sentence in federal prison for her tangential involvement with a Michigan drug ring years earlier. Captured by Shank's brother, this intimate portrait of the devastating consequences of mandatory minimum drug sentencing follows her and her family over the course of ten years.

BURDEN JUNE 28, 7:30 PM

Enter the world of Mike Burden (Garrett Hedlund), a taciturn repo man rising through the ranks of the Ku Klux Klan in small-town South Carolina. Loyal to the Klan for deeply personal reasons, Burden has a change of heart when he falls for a single mother who stirs his social conscience. His violent break from the Klan brings him to Reverend Kennedy (Forest Whitaker), an idealistic African American preacher. Based on a true story, Burden is an unflinching examination of our heritage of hatred, redemption, and the hard work of undoing racism.

OF FATHERS AND SONS JUNE 29, 7:30 PM

After his Sundance award-winning documentary Return to Homs, Talal Derki returned to his Syrian homeland to live for two years with a radical Islamist family. His camera focuses mainly on the children, providing rare insight into what it means to grow up with a father whose dream is to establish an Islamic caliphate. Osama (13) and his brother Ayman (12) love and admire their father, but while Osama seems to follow the path of jihad, Ayman wants to go back to school. The film captures the moment when the children have to let go of their youth and become jihadi fighters, steeled by one thing they've already learned: They must not cry.
